Last Year Prediction: 2023

Prediction:

The Covid-19 situation worldwide will remain as status quo where we will see new variances emerging once a while and cause some fear and anxiety to everyone. Although there is available vaccine, there is a need to constantly develop new vaccines to catch-up with the ever changing of Covid-19 mutations.

Results:

At the time of writing, on 28th Oct 2023, the Singapore government had issued updates to the Covid-19 vaccine advisory. It now recommends administering a new dose of the vaccine approximately one year after the last shot. The government is actively encouraging individuals aged six months and above to receive an additional dose in either 2023 or 2024.

Prediction:

Unlike last year, there will be a slowdown in fast moving transportation (e.g. courier and delivery business). This may be due to the slowing down of the economy. However, the entertainment industry (night club, KTV, pub etc.) may see an upward trend in recovery.

Likewise, the education industry may see an upward trend where more people will go back to study to pick up new skills.

Results:

As predicted, there was a slow down in freight transportation services. As shown in the Freight Transportation Services Index (TSI), From September 2022 to September 2023 the index fell -1.8%

Source: <https://www.bts.gov/newsroom/september-2023-freight-transportation-services-index-tsi-remains-same-previous-month-and>

There is no statistics for entertainment industry. In Singapore, the closest statistics are from the Wholesale and Retail Trade. As shown below, GDP from Services in Singapore increased to 19657.10 SGD Million in the second quarter of 2023 from 19565.30 SGD Million in the first quarter of 2023.

Prediction:

For job market, after enjoying a rosy last year, we may see more job cuts or downsizing due to economic recession. There is a sign of mass retrenchments.

Results:

The monthly unemployment rate in US from Oct 2021 to Oct 2023 showed that there is an upward trend in unemployment:

Prediction:

Relationship and partnership may have issues this year. For those who are married, need to be extra careful. For business partnership, there may have a sign of break-off in partnership.

Results:

2023 statistics are not available yet. In 2021, I predicted that the Divorce rate would stabilised. Based on Singapore department of statistics, the total divorces as follows:

Year	Total Divorces
2020	6,708
2021	7,674

Year 2024

This year, 2024 is Jia Chen (甲辰) Dragon Year. The Dragon year starts on 4th February 2024 at 16:26 hour. For Qi Men Dun Jia yearly prediction, we will be using the date and time of Chinese New Year Eve to plot the chart and perform the analysis. The main reason is that the human Qi during this time is strong as every Chinese will be celebrating the Chinese New Year. This is to be in line with the Heaven, Earth and Human concept (天时, 地利, 人和). This year, Chinese New Year occurs on 10th February 2024.

This Year general Prediction

In Qi Men Dun Jia, a Fu Yin chart means stagnant, not moving or remain constant. So for 2024, whatever happened in 2023, will continue to be the same as 2024.

The trade war between the US and China is expected to continue without resolution. Additionally, the conflict in Ukraine may extend into 2024 if there is no resolution by the end of 2023. Territorial conflicts in the South China Sea between China and various countries, as well as the Hamas vs Israel war, may persist into 2024 if without resolution by 2023.

The Covid-19 situation is projected to evolve into a seasonal flu-like symptom, with spikes in infections as the virus mutates. Constant booster shots are deemed necessary.

The economy is anticipated to remain in a state of limbo, with high-interest rates. There are signs of companies losing money and declaring bankruptcy. However, the medical and unconventional industries are expected to continue to flourish.

The job market may witness more retrenchments in 2024 due to company restructuring. Changing jobs may be risky, as there are indications of a last-in-first-out situation, unless you are confident it will not apply to you. The medical industry may face a serious shortage of manpower, possibly due to exhaustion from the Covid-19 pandemic.

The property market may undergo a correction, leading to financial losses for some individuals.

Weather patterns are expected to be more erratic, with occurrences such as volcano eruptions, tornadoes, intense heat, and cold.

Group 1 (Yi)

In comparison to last year, the overall outlook for this year has notably improved. However, it's crucial to tread carefully in matters of relationships, as entanglements may arise if not approached with caution. While this year may tempt you to take things lightly, beware of becoming complacent in handling various aspects of your life. It is essential to maintain self-motivation and strive for continuous improvement.

Health:

Your health is on an upward trajectory this year. Be mindful of potential urinary tract infections or kidney issues. If you are undergoing dialysis, exercise extra caution to prevent infections. Men aged 50 and above should be vigilant about prostate problems, while women are advised to prioritize pap smear checks for their well-being.

Career:

Positive strides are foreseen in your career this year, although support from your boss may be lacking. This could be attributed to your boss dealing with personal issues, leaving little time for external support. Rely on self-motivation and seize this opportunity to showcase your capabilities and resilience.

Wealth:

Similar to last year, your wealth luck is not particularly favourable, and there is a risk of potential financial loss. Adopt prudence in your spending habits and defer major expenses whenever possible.

If you are involved in business, profitability may be elusive. Implement cost-cutting measures and optimize your operations. Exercise caution in business dealings, maintaining a low profile to mitigate risks.

Relationship:

The outlook for relationships this year is less than ideal, signalling potential entanglements. Married individuals should exercise strict discipline to avoid unnecessary entanglements with others.

For those unmarried, both men and women may experience challenges in their romantic endeavours, with a higher likelihood of breakups.

Study:

Unlike the previous year, your study luck will see improvements in the current year. However, sustained effort is still essential to ensure a high likelihood of success in your exams. Stay committed to your studies and capitalize on the positive shift in academic fortunes.

Group 2 (Bing)

Similar to last year, where you were prone to traffic accidents or breaking things, you are more susceptible to blood-related calamities in this year. Exercise extra caution when handling objects. For those who donate blood regularly, feel free to continue, and it is advisable to undergo regular dental check-ups.

Health:

Much like the previous year, you are more prone to headaches or heart issues. Take care of both your mental health and your heart. Increase your exercise regimen, focusing particularly on cardio exercises to strengthen your heart. Manage your food intake, especially high-cholesterol items, to prevent the buildup of bad cholesterol (LDL) that could lead to heart issues.

Career:

This year, your career luck sees a slight improvement from last year due to your hard work, gaining recognition from your boss. However, your boss may have personal issues to resolve, making it challenging to allocate time for you. Set proper expectations and establish effective communications with your boss. Additionally, be wary of increased stress in your working environment and navigate carefully around office dynamics to avoid issues caused by petty individuals.

All these factors can contribute to increased stress and potentially impact your health.

Wealth:

Your wealth luck remains positive, as similar to last year. However, there is a sign that you may spend on unnecessary or regrettable big-ticket items, thus affecting your savings. Plan carefully, conduct thorough analyses before embarking on significant purchases. Your indirect wealth luck is favourable this year, which will potentially bring unexpected windfalls.

If you are in business, consider halting expansion plans and take a step back to review your strategy. There are signs of economic slowdown draining your company funds. Be cautious to prevent ending up with negative cash flow.

Relationship:

This year, your relationships may face significant challenges. Spend more time with your spouse to foster a better connection. For those unmarried, females may experience stagnant peach blossom luck. Be cautious, as someone may appear decent but not meet your expectations.

For males, peach blossom luck is good, but there is a chance your girlfriend may break off the relationship. Invest more time in your relationship.

Study:

For those still in school, your study luck continues to be positive, similar to last year. Keep up the good work!

Group 3 (Ding)

This year presents a slightly improved scenario for you compared to the previous year. However, it is crucial to exercise prudence in managing your wealth, as there are signs indicating potential financial losses. Additionally, paying attention to your health is essential, as unexpected health issues may arise.

Health:

Similar to last year, you should continue to take care of stomach problems. Furthermore, be aware of potential unexpected health issues that may come and go. If you have chronic diseases, exercise extra vigilance, as there may be relapses.

Career:

Your career luck remains positive this year, with continued strong support from your boss. Although your job may become more stressful, the returns will be fulfilling. Beware of petty individuals who may be envious of your achievements and attempt to disturb your peace. If you pursued short courses last year, they are likely to contribute to your job performance significantly.

Wealth:

Compared to last year, your wealth luck is better this year. However, there is a risk of spending money on unnecessary items or big-ticket purchases. While affordability may not be an issue, poor planning can lead to a situation of "biting off more than you can chew."

In business, consider minor expansions, but plan meticulously to avoid overstretching and resulting in potential cash-flow issues.

Relationship:

For married individuals, unlike last year, your relationship may encounter challenges this year. Fostering open and direct communication with your spouse is crucial to prevent misinterpretations.

For males, peach blossom luck is not as favourable but is better than last year. If your relationship is in its early stages, be cautious as there is a chance it may end, or your ex-girlfriend may express a desire to reconcile. Maintain a clear mindset when handling relationship matters.

Study:

For those still studying, your study luck is not as favourable as last year. Extra effort and advanced planning before exams are crucial. Avoid studying at the last minute to ensure better academic outcomes.

Group 4 (Wu)

This year poses challenges for you, particularly in terms of health issues that require attention. Monitoring your diet and engaging in regular exercise is crucial.

Health:

Your health is not as robust as last year. Take special care of your stomach, especially if you are diabetic, as there are signs it may worsen. Exercise control over your food intake, maintain fixed meal intervals, and avoid spicy foods which may affect your stomach. Diabetics should monitor their blood sugar levels diligently.

Career:

Your career luck improves this year, with better support from your boss. However, be aware that your boss has their own set of problems to resolve. Assisting your boss in lightening their burden can significantly contribute to your career advancement. Despite the smooth trajectory, remain cautious of office politics, as petty individuals may attempt to harm you behind your back.

Wealth:

Your wealth luck is slightly better than last year, but it's essential to continue being prudent in spending and exercise extra caution in investments. Potential issues may arise, so thorough research is necessary before committing to any investment.

Business owners may experience slight improvements, but there could be potential cash-flow problems. Planning ahead and taking extra precautions are crucial.

Relationship:

For married individuals, this year's relationship dynamics may not have improved and may even be worsen compared to last year. Foster open communication and spend more time with your spouse.

For those unmarried, both genders have positive peach blossom luck. Male partners may display temperamental traits, requiring understanding and open communications. Female partners may appear nice and macho externally, but internal dynamics could differ, urging you to take time to understand the person before committing to the relationship.

Study:

Similar to last year, your study luck remains challenging. If you are preparing for a major exam, invest extra effort and commence your preparations early. Avoid last minute preparation so as to enhance your chances of success.

Group 5 (Ji)

This year, exercise caution to avoid traffic accidents. Remember to fasten your seat belt, even when seated at the back. If possible, always put on your seat belt and choose transportation equipped with this safety feature.

Health:

This year brings a significant shift in your health. Apart from the potential for traffic accidents, prioritize the well-being of your liver. Ensure you sleep early (before 11 pm) to facilitate liver detoxification and recovery. Reduce alcohol consumption, as it can impede liver function.

When managing tasks, step back, as there is a sign that impulsive actions may create stress and affect your sleep.

Career:

Unlike the previous year, your career luck is not favourable this year. Increased work stress and a lack of support from your boss are notable challenges. Given your tendency to act impulsively, it is advisable to step back and review before taking action. Although your boss may not be as supportive, setting expectations upfront can prevent misunderstandings.

Wealth:

Similar to the last two years, your wealth luck remains challenging. Be cautious in your spending and refrain from major investments. There's a risk of impulsive decisions leading to potential financial losses. Thorough homework is essential before embarking on any investment.

In your business, maintain a calm demeanour and avoid impulsive decisions when making major choices. While there may be opportunities for expansion, thorough analysis is crucial to avoid regrettable decisions.

Relationship:

For married individuals, your relationship improves this year. Minor conflicts may arise, so fostering open communication is essential.

For singles, male peach blossom luck is less favourable compared to last year, with signs of potential breakups if attached. Unattached males may face challenges in meeting someone they like. For females, peach blossom luck is positive this year.

Study:

If you are still studying, your study luck remains favorable, as similar to the past two years. However, avoid complacency in your preparation. Dedicate time to studying and preparing for examinations.

Group 6 (Geng)

This year, your luck has improved compared to the previous year. If you are currently studying or planning to do so, it is an opportune time to enhance your skills.

Health:

Similar to last year, your health remains a concern. As advised previously, prioritize the well-being of your liver. Ensure you maintain a consistent sleep schedule, allowing your liver to detox. Additionally, reducing alcohol intake is crucial for your liver's health.

Career:

Much like last year, your career luck persists as challenging. Limited support from your boss places a considerable workload on your shoulders, given your unique skill set. Stress may arise from the added responsibilities, and recognition may not be readily forthcoming. Expect to navigate tasks independently.

Wealth:

Similar to the previous year, your wealth luck remains unfavourable, and there may be entanglements in financial matters. Exercise extra caution when dealing with investments or financial issues.

For business owners, despite your perceived capabilities, carefully evaluate potential business ventures to avoid financial entanglements. Monitor your cash flow meticulously.

Relationship:

This year brings improvements in your relationships, but potential third-party issues may arise. Open communication with your spouse is crucial to resolve matters early.

For unmarried males, peach blossom luck continues to be challenging, with low chance of forming new connections. Those in relationships should invest more time and open communication to prevent potential breakoffs.

For unmarried females, peach blossom luck is positive, increasing the likelihood of forming new connections. Unattached individuals should engage in social activities to enhance their chances.

Study:

For those still studying or planning to do so, this year is favourable for increasing knowledge and skills. If you are working, consider taking some time off to pursue further education. Despite positive luck, students should remain diligent in exam preparation and avoid complacency.

Group 7 (Xin)

This year, your luck is not as favourable as it was last year. Challenges and problems may arise in various aspects of your life. However, even in the worst situations, there is a silver lining with noble individuals coming to your aid in dire moments.

Health:

In the current year, prioritize the well-being of your stomach. Pay careful attention to your food intake, ensuring regular meals. Reduce the consumption of spicy foods to prevent stomach issues. If you had stomach problems in the past, be extra cautious this year to avoid exacerbating the situation.

Career:

Similar to the previous years, your career luck remains positive, with continued support from your boss. However, be wary of potential obstacles created by petty individuals. Despite support from your boss, their busy schedule may limit their availability. Jealousy from petty individuals is a recurring theme, so remain vigilant and avoid complacency.

Wealth:

Consistent with the past two years, your wealth luck remains average. Exercise extra caution in your investments and conduct thorough research before making commitments. This year signals potential issues with investments leading to financial losses, prompting careful consideration before venturing into any investment.

Relationship:

For married individuals, the relationship outlook this year is challenging. Increased effort is required to strengthen the relationship, particularly with the possibility of being too engrossed in a flourishing career. Foster open communication and spend quality time with your spouse.

For singles, both males and females have positive peach blossom luck, increasing the likelihood of meeting someone special.

Study:

Similar to the previous year, your study luck is challenging this year. Allocate more time to study planning and avoid last-minute cramming to improve your academic performance.

Group 8 (Ren)

This year's luck appears to be similar to that of the previous year, with positive outcomes expected in your career, relationship, and overall luck.

Health:

In the current year, prioritise the well-being of your respiratory tract, especially with the ongoing Covid-19 situation. There is a high chance of potential reinfection, so it is crucial to wear masks in crowded places and practice proper hygiene. Additionally, be cautious of common cold and sore throat risks, wear a mask and avoid crowded places whenever possible.

Career:

While your career is expected to remain smooth with continued support from your boss, this year may bring a decrease in busyness. Despite the positive trajectory, be cautious of potential disruptions from petty individuals, requiring extra care in navigating office politics.

Those in the medical field may experience a generally smooth career, occasionally dealing with disruptive elements that can be resolved with good boss support.

Wealth:

This year's wealth luck is notably better than the previous year. However, avoid complacency and carefully assess investment opportunities and big-ticket items. Due diligence is crucial, as signs suggest potential challenges in obtaining favourable returns on investments.

Business owners may experience improvements, signalling a potential for expansion, but caution is advised to avoid cash flow issues. Plan the expansion thoroughly and maintaining a financial buffer is recommended.

Relationship:

For married individuals, similar to last year, the relationship outlook is positive. Consistency in positive action is key, and occasional surprises can add spice to the relationship.

Unmarried individuals may face varying peach blossom luck. Females may encounter challenges, require increased time and communication with their partners. For males, peach blossom luck is favourable, with a high chance of getting married if attached, and a strong possibility of finding a girlfriend if unattached.

Study:

Your study luck this year is not as favourable as the previous year. Therefore, dedicate more time and effort to achieve desired results is essential. Consistency and focused study habits will be crucial to meet your academic goals.

Group 9 (Gui)

Your luck continues to be challenging, as observed in the previous years. There are indications of potential legal issues, especially for those driving, where speeding tickets, running red lights, or parking fines may become a concern.

Health:

This year, there is a potential issue with your respiratory tract, increasing the risk of Covid-19 infection. Additionally, you are more susceptible to sore throat and flu. To minimize risks, avoid crowded places and wear a mask when venturing out.

Career:

In contrast to last year, your career luck improves significantly. Your efforts are gaining recognition from your boss, who is now providing proper support. However, similar to last year, there is a risk of making mistakes when executing tasks. Exercise caution to avoid legal entanglements resulting from errors.

Wealth:

Your wealth luck remains stagnant this year, urging extra caution if considering investments or significant purchases. There is a high chance of financial losses, but with careful planning, you may achieve modest gains.

Business owners should meticulously analyse plans for major expansion, starting small and gradually increasing while remaining cautious.

Relationship:

Your relationship experiences a considerable improvement this year, reflecting the positive efforts from the previous year. However, avoid complacency and continue reinforcing what is working while addressing areas that need improvement. Maintain open communication with your spouse.

For unmarried individuals, males have good peach blossom luck this year. Unattached males, although having favourable luck, need to exert extra effort, while attached males should spend more time fostering a better relationship.

For females, peach blossom luck is not favourable, reducing the chances of forming new connections. For attached females, the risk of breakups is higher, necessitating increased efforts to maintain the relationship.
