Author's Note

I have been practising various method of divination and realised that there is a limitation to the way charts are generated. Most divination methods requires the usage of Chinese Meta-Physics hour, which is the standard 2 hours. So, if there are a lot of questions being asked within these 2 hours, the divination has to be derived from the same chart, which would hence dilute the accuracy of the divination.

This is where I derived the system of using card as divination. This is the first system in the world that uses the Qi Men Dun Jia on cards. This system allows the practitioner to have the flexibility of generating a faction of Qi Men Dun Jia chart based on the simple question asked. This Qi Men Dun Jia Card system is made possible because of the Qi Men Dun Jia system that I am practising and teaching. The system that I am practising and teaching is based on the simplified system of Qi Men Dun Jia.

Just note that for complex questions, the normal Qi Men Dun Jia divination step is required. The Qi Men Dun Jia card is not designed to replace the current system but to supplement it. You can plot the Qi Men Dun Jia chart as usual and supplement the subsequent questions asked using Qi Men Dun Jia Card using the usual Qi Men Dun Jia chart as a foundation to your analysis.

There are 10 examples being presented in this book but the system is designed to be flexible enough to cater for other cases. Feel free to experiment and expand it as needed.

With the information in this book, you can start practising Qi Men Dun Jia instantly.

Introduction

The Tarot is a pack of playing cards used from the mid-15th century in various part of Europe to play games. Later, tarot cards were used primarily for novelty and divination purposes using the specially designed packs.

奇門遁甲 (Qí Mén Dùn Jiǎ) is an ancient form of Chinese Meta-Physics which is still used in modern times. The name Qi Men, which loosely translates to Mystical Door, gives a sense of mystical or magic to people who do not know otherwise. Qi Men Dun Jia may be applied to business, crime-solving, marriages and matchmaking, medical divination, Feng Shui, military affairs, finding missing people, travel, personal fortune divination etc.

It was recorded in Chinese history that Qi Men Dun Jia, together with Da Liu Ren and Tai Yi Shen Shu are the epitome peak of the Three Arts or Three Styles (三式 sān shì) in Chinese Meta-physics. It was said that these Arts can only be practice by the Emperor or their advisors. Commoners caught practicing these Three Arts run the risk of being executed!

According to legend, Qi Men Dun Jia was taught to 黃帝 (the Yellow Emperor, Huáng Dì- 2697 BC to 2597 BC) by a fairy, 九天玄女 (Jiǔ Tiān Xuán Nǚ). During that time, the Yellow Emperor was fighting against a rebel called 蚩尤 (Chī Yóu). Chī Yóu was familiar with the art of Yin & Yang and has developed the capability to summon the wind and rain. It was rumoured that his head was as strong as copper and arms are like iron (銅頭鐵臂) and able to win any wars. During the ensuing battles with Chī Yóu, the Yellow Emperor exhausted all means to defeat him. 九天玄女 (Jiǔ Tiān Xuán Nǚ) took pity on the Yellow Emperor and taught the art of Qi Men Dun Jia to the Yellow Emperor. Harnessing the knowledge of Qi Men Dun Jia, the Yellow Emperor invented the 指南车 (South Pointing Chariot) to win the war against Chī Yóu.

The famous practitioners of Qi Men Dun Jia are:

- 姜子牙 (Jiāng Zǐyá)
- 諸葛亮 (Zhūgě Liàng)
- 張良 (Zhāng Liáng)
- 劉伯溫 (Liú Bó Wēn)

QMDJ Card Divination

For more information about Qi Men Dun Jia, please refer to the book:
Qi Men Dun Jia Made Easy (ISBN: 978-9811411076)

It is also assumed that you have some basic knowledge of Qi Men Dun Jia before you use the QMDJ Card for divination.

Limitation of Divination System

For all the divination systems in Chinese Meta-Physics, there is always the element of time. For example, in Qi Men Dun Jia, the Hour Family of Qi Men Dun Jia (时家奇門遁甲) is mainly used to plot the chart for divination purposes. Likewise, for Peach Blossom Divination (梅花易数) or Mei Hua Yi Shu, the hour element is used to generate the lower Gua and moving line.

However, one Chinese Meta-Physics hour is equivalent to 2 business hours. (e.g. Chen Hour = 7am – 9am). Therefore, this creates a limitation to the divination system as within the 2 hours, it is still the same chart.

Qi Men Dun Jia card can be used to address this limitation. This is done by asking a question and then drawing the relevant cards from the deck. If there is new question, shuffle the deck and draw the cards again.

Rules of Divination

In ancient times, our forefathers had laid down the following rules when asking for divination. The rules are stated as three do not divine (三不占).

The rules are:

1. No movement, don't divine (Wú gù bù zhàn 无故不占)
2. Nothing surprising, don't divine (Wú yì bù zhàn 无异不占)
3. Don't ask, don't divine (Wú wèn bù zhàn 无问不占)

No movement, don't divine (Wú Gù Bù Zhàn 无故不占)

Movement is indication of something is happening. For example, asking for a temple lot – you need to shake the lot holder for the lot to drop out. As such, if there is no indication, (e.g. movement), don't do divination.

Nothing surprising, don't divine (Wú Yì Bù Zhàn 无异不占)

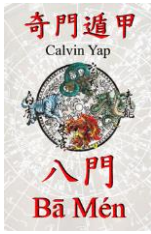

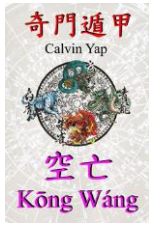

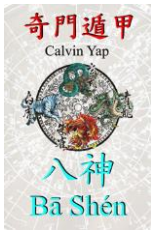

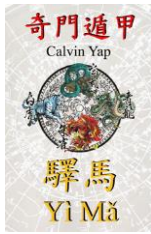

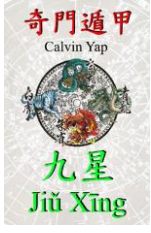

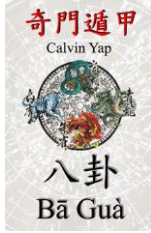

“Surprise” affects human emotion, which will affect the human 6th sense. “Surprise” will cause a change in the human mood. Since there is change, that means there is movement. So, only do divination whether there is slight hint or triggering of the 6th sense.

Don't ask, don't divine (Wú Wèn Bù Zhàn 无问不占)

If people don't ask you, don't divine. It affects the Cause and Effect (Karma). Things happen for a reason. If you can help but if the person didn't ask for help, then it is the person's karma. However, if you insist of helping, you are basically violating the law of nature.

Steps in using QMDJ Card for divination

As described in Qi Men Dun Jia Made Easy, the steps are:

Collect → Plot → Determine → Identify → Interpretation

The steps using QMDJ Card can be further simplified to 4 steps:

Collect → Determine → Draw → Interpretation

1. Collect the question that a person wants to ask. Since the QMDJ Card is designed to answer one question at a time, then the question asked should be specific enough to allow a single answer. In addition, the questions have to be precise and not open-ended question. (e.g. will I get rich is not an acceptable question)
2. Determine the Ti (体) or point of reference based on the questions asked. For example, relationship, we look for 六合 (Liù Hé). For profit or capital, use Wu.

Some basic point of reference as follow, please note that this list is not exhaustive:

Reference Point, Ti (体)	Qi Men Dun Jia element	Qi Men Dun Jia Plate
Career	開門 (Kāi Mén)	Human Plate (Ba Men)
Business transaction, profit, wealth luck	生門 (Shēng Mén)	Human Plate (Ba Men)

Illness	天芮 (Tiān Ruì) or 禽芮 (Qín Ruì)	Heaven Plate (Jiu Xing)
